Superintendent's Highlights

July 1, 1997, a rookie superintendent took over as new chief executive officer of the Richfield Schools. This proved to be a year of board micro management. A recall of three board members was slated for September. This action was averted with due to a court hearing where it was found that one of the petitions for recall lack one signature required on the initial petition. The petitioners of the two other zones withdrew their petitions. The District Clerk/Business Manager resigned in October. The District Board hires an unqualified candidate to fill this position. The Board gave its approval to one issue during the year. Thank goodness for board elections. The Richfield School District has three new board members. The superintendent is looking forward to a better year during 1998-99.

A $465,000 bond was passed by the patrons of the Richfield School District to purchase two propane boilers to heat the school building and to put a pitched roof on the school building to stop the leaks of water into the school and gymnasium. The boilers were installed in October 1997, and the roof is being completed as this information is being written.

Progress Towards Meeting District Goals

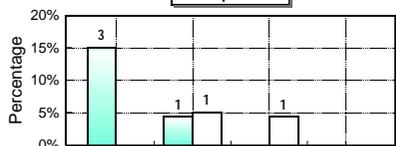

1997-98 Goals	Progress
School Facilities Improvement	Two propane boilers were installed in October, 1997. A metal pitched roof was installed during the summer months
Improvement of Instruction	Reading in grades K-6 was emphasized during the school year. The Intensive Phonics program was adopted in grade K-6. Teachers and aids attended two workshops to learn how to use this program. The Fifty-in-a-Minute math improvement program was adopted from Harrison Elementary School in Twin Falls. Our objective is to improve math test scores on the ITBS tests.
Improved Technology	Our school connected to the internet in Feb., 1998. We now have computer linkage inside our building and to the outside world.
